THE DAILY EPITAPH IS the only Daily Newspaper published in Cochise county that takes a regular telegraphic press report and does not use "boiler plate."

As the Wham trial progresses the more certain does it appear that the right men are in the tails.

Information comes from Tucson to the effect that, as far as the examination has progressed into the affairs of the office of Receiver of Public Moneys, Fred W. Smith is $150,000 short in his accounts. Will the Tucson papers please give us outside barbarians the particulars?

ALREADY the first mutterings of next year's political campaign are heard.
One Phenix paper wants better men elected to the next legislature, and the other makes a plea for ballot reform.
But the talk and endeavor of all the newspapers in the world will have no effect unless the property-owning class can be stirred up to taking a more active interest in politics.

VOX COMES out from behind his disguise and has another long communication in the Tucson Star about high taxes in Cochise county. Mr. Bruce, who lives in Pima county, is sad because taxes are so high in Cochise, and intimates that our present Board of Supervisors, instead of being knaves, as he classes some former boards, are plain, simple, unadorned fools. The DAILY EPITAPH will not discuss this latter proposition with Mr. Bruce, as he has the reputation of being rather clever, and we might get worried in the argument, which would be bad both for us and the gentlemen comprising the present board. Mr. Bruce, who is a member of a large cattle firm, ought not to "kick" so vigorously, as it is notorious that cattle men, as a rule, do not give in more than 50 per cent of their stock. If they would be honest in giving returns to the Assessor taxes would be lighter all around.
For this reason we do not think a protest about high taxes comes with very good grace from Mr. Bruce. Another reason for his dissatisfaction, we are informed, is that the Board of Supervisors refused to build a bridge he wanted somewhere on his land grant.
And, above all, if citizens owning property, many of whom think it beneath them, would pay more attention to politics the risk of getting either fools or knaves in office would be greatly lessened.

tentive waiters. This restaurant makes a specialty of broiled steaks and cut-
